Give into the luxuries of couple treatments at one of these idyllic spots to say "love you to the moon"—all while de-stressing and rejuvenating.

A BEACH ESCAPE

How about some inspired tropical chic for your summer honeymoon? Hidden on a rocky outcrop along a secluded stretch of Sri Lanka's southernmost coastline, Anantara Peace Haven Tangalle Resort easily vies for the most unique spot in this part of the island. Set amidst a coconut plantation and golden crescent shores along with glorious views of the Indian Ocean, the resort offers an exclusive hideaway for newlyweds to sample beach life in all its tranquility. Facilitating an easy access to iconic cultural sites, spectacular national parks, and whale-watching destinations, the property beckons you to watch the sunrise and discover the local area by bicycle or tuk-tuk. Romantic, right? While beach-soaking, partake of the custom of high tea and savour authentic Sri Lankan cuisine in a Spice Spoons cooking class. Added bliss? Sri Lankan-inspired teppanyaki beside the beach, private wine cellar degustation dinners, and tailored Dining by Design occasions. Once you're done with sampling the locale, you can head to the Anantara Spa. Choose from a menu of trusted ancient therapies from Sri Lanka and across Asia, as well as the most popular western techniques and advanced spa wisdom. While scrubs and wraps provide nourishment to skin, massages work to heal, de-stress, and restore balance. Personally prescribed facials target the anti-ageing spectrum. Skilled specialists go beyond Ayurvedic and reflexology treatments to offer a wealth of holistic benefits.

The ESCAPE

The spa facilities include Ayurvedic and reflexology treatment rooms, four double treatment suites, four single treatment suites, a plush beauty salon, an inviting facial treatment room, and a must-visit relaxation area. Perfect for newlyweds to spend quality time with each other while indulging in a variety of recreational activities such as sun-bathing, nature-surfing, cuisine-dipping, and the like. Dine in the open amidst the sound of the waves and as-far-as-your-eyes-can-stretch vistas with top notch culinary fare. Think exotic Middle Eastern and Asian specialties, or international classics for breakfast and dinner or casual poolside snacks. Add a flair of wildlife to your sojourn in the sanctuary that is the Anantara Peace Haven Tangalle Resort by opting for elephant-watching, whale-watching, and turtle-gazing sessions. If you still have time, step into the tea plantation and take Dutch Fort tours.
